... Georgia has worked to extend the standards down to birth and to align them to the K-12 system. This year, Georgia introduced its latest set of high-quality, research-based early learning standards for children birth to age five called the Georgia Early Learning and Development Standards (GELDS). The GELDS are the result of a two-year alignment study and revision project that began in 2010. The purpose of the GELDS is to promote quality learning experiences for children and address the question, "What should children from birth to age five know and be able to do?" They are a set of appropriate, attainable standards for Georgia's youngest learners and are designed to be flexible enough to support children's individual rates of development, approaches to learning, and cultural context. ...	LifeCubby is a high-quality, research-based tool for thorough documentation of the rapid development of children birth to school-age. LifeCubby provides teachers a digital platform to document the quality learning experiences of children, and the means to link appropriate information and reflections to the Georgia Early Learning and Development Standards.

Introduction	... The Content Standards are used for planning instruction, assessing growth and development, and sharing information with	LifeCubby is a comprehensive tool for families. These standards are important for a number of reasons; the most important are: 1. Because Pre-K children learn and develop at varying rates, instruction must be planned to meet each child's individual needs; 2. Pre-K children learn best with a balance of teacher-directed and child-initiated activities that encourage thinking, reasoning and communication; 3. Pre-K children need movement, hands-on activities, lots of language, and a supportive environment. (pg 4) ...	planning instruction, assessing growth and development, and sharing information with families. Teachers use assessment information to plan instruction to meet each child's individual needs.

Strengthening the Transition from Pre-K to Kindergarten	... Providing for a smooth transition from Pre-K to Kindergarten is a critical part of Georgia's Pre-K program. When looking at Kindergarten transition, it is important to remember that it is a year long process, not something that happens in April or May of the school year. Transition planning occurs at several levels and involves building relationships, aligning curriculum, and sharing information. (pg 9) ...	The contents of the child's Cubby stay with the family, which facilitates smooth transition.
Connecting Families to Schools	... Share school events and activities with families and provide information to families concerning school organizations such as Parent Teacher Association or Parent Teacher Organization. Provide families with information on Kindergarten registration and required documentation. (pg 9) ...	LifeCubby's communication tools include: eMail, Daily Sheets, Sharing of Photos & Videos, Newsletter Uploader Tool, Forms, Assessments, eBlasts, etc. Programs can use LifeCubby to email parents information concerning school events, activities, organizations, etc.
Performance Indicators	Language and Literacy Development (pg 15-23) Mathematics Development (pg 24-32) Science Development (pg 33-38) Social Studies Development (pg 39-44) Creative Development (pg 45-50) Social and Emotional Development (pg 51-56) Health and Physical Development (pg 57-61)	LifeCubby offers 18 comprehensive methods of formal assessment plus informal methods of observation, through anecdotal journaling. LifeCubby's assessments are customizable to include Georgia's Performance Indicators. See Attachment A

Quality Rated is a systemic approach to assess, improve, and communicate the level of quality in early education and school-age care programs. Similar to rating systems for other service related industries, Quality Rated assigns a quality rating (one star, two star, or three star) to early education and school-	LifeCubby supports early education and school-age programs on their path of continuous quality improvement

age care programs that meet a set of defined program standards. By participating in Georgia's voluntary Quality Rated, early education and school-age care programs embark on a path of continuous quality improvement. More and more children in the United States and in Georgia are cared for every day in out-of-home early care and education settings. Research supports that the quality of care children receive in their child care settings dramatically affects their physical, mental, and academic development. Consequently, the emphasis on improving the quality of early care and education services has increased.		by providing a high quality tool for documentation, assessment, communication, transition and engagement. LifeCubby makes required processes easier for care givers, facilitating improved quality of care and education services.

Portfolio Standard 3:
Family Partnership	Research shows that a families' involvement in their child's education supports the holistic development process. This standard relies heavily on the Strengthening Families Assessment tool that aligns with their Five Protective Factors. ...	LifeCubby is a Family Engagement tool, and is the preferred mode (electronic & mobile) of communication for today's families
3. Points for Family Involvement/Support and Conferences
1 point	3.1 Program has policies and practices in place that address inclusion, confidentiality of child records, and encouragement of family involvement, and director and staff have received a minimum of 2 hours of training in inclusion, and 2 hours of training in cultural/linguistic competency, and program offers family conferences at least once a year. ...	Programs can use LifeCubby to email parents information about their child and about upcoming opportunities such as family conferences.
Portfolio Standard 4:
Intentional Teaching Practices	This standard respects the fact that programs have many choices when it comes to the curriculum they implement. Points are earned in this area based on the program's ability to show a direct alignment between a developmentally appropriate curriculum, Georgia's Early Learning Standards, lesson planning, and assessment. It is critical that programs show intention and responsiveness to the holistic developmental needs of children at each age level. Evidence for this standard must be descriptive and address all learning domains.	LifeCubby's Lesson Plan Tool is completely customizable, can be used with any curriculum, and can be aligned to Georgia's Early Learning Standards. Teachers have access to assessment data in order to create intentional lesson plans responsive to the children's holistic developmental needs.
1. Points for Curriculum
1 point	1.1 The program utilizes an age appropriate curriculum that supports development across all 5 learning domains (cognitive, social, emotional, physical, approaches to learning) and classrooms, materials, curriculum, and interactions reflect value for children's home languages, traditions, and culture.	Staff can use LifeCubby to align to any curriculum of choice. LifeCubby documentation aligns to all 5 learning domains (cognitive, social, emotional, physical, approaches to learning).
